

Wondering about Watersheds? Teacher Workshop

Join Seattle Public Utilities educators for a two-day teacher's workshop. Immerse yourself in the wonders of water and watersheds. Gather new information and motivation for next years' science units.

We will spend the first day in the field, while the second day is split between the field and the Cedar River Watershed Education Center in North Bend.

When: Wednesday & Thursday,
June 28-29, 2006
9 AM—4 PM

Who: Educators (4th and 5th-grade teachers encouraged to attend.)

Cost: Free
10 clock-hours($15);
one credit ($40) available
through Seattle Pacific University.

Journey beyond the closed boundaries of the municipal Cedar River Watershed and discover the Source of your water!

Also, enjoy...

- A chance to win a totally free field trip for your 4th or 5th-grade class!
- Hands-on inquiry-based science
- Classroom handouts
- Teacher materials
- Activities that expand your understanding of water and watersheds
- Breakfast and light snacks provided.
